Dear Parents and Carers,

I am writing this letter as a brief introduction as the new Interim Executive Headteacher of St Edward's First Catholic Primary School, a position I am delighted, excited, and enthused to be starting.

I hope that my appointment will enable greater links between both Catholic Schools in our new parish of Christ the King in Ascot and Windsor, it offers a wonderful opportunity for us to explore our shared Catholic values, and to empower our staff teams through greater collaboration across both of our schools.

With any new appointment there will undoubtedly be some trepidation and a degree of anxiety amongst the whole school community about the new leadership; what I will bring and what changes I will make. Change will undoubtedly happen, I would be disingenuous if I said it would not, but as always, our children are at the centre of all that I do.

Whilst my position is different to the one held by Mrs Matthews, my commitment to the school is unwavering. As I will need to share my time across two schools, do rest assured that St Edward's Senior Leadership Team will be able to make sure the school continues to go from strength to strength whilst I am at St Francis Catholic Primary School in Ascot.

My priority this half-term is certainly getting to know you all and your wonderful children. Over the next few weeks and months, I aim to provide several opportunities for us to come together, so that I can truly build an accurate picture of what life is like at St Edward's First Catholic School.

In the short term, I aim to have a visible presence at St Edward's First Catholic School, and where possible; feel free to come and say hello.

Kind regards,

Mrs Miccoli
